From Your Mayor

Happy Fall! I hope you're enjoying the changing colors and cooler breezes of the season, and taking the time to get out and enjoy all our fine City has to offer!

Public Works crews have been hard at work with leaf collection across the City. There are some things you can do to make things run smoothly for our crews, see page 9 for more information.

As the temperatures get colder, that doesn't mean Parks & Recreation programming is cooling off! Please check out all of our awesome programs we have coming up to celebrate the coming of the winter season. But just know, it's not too early to start thinking about summer, either! We're offering a number of Lifeguard classes already so you can start your summer off with one of our coveted Lifeguard jobs at North Pointe!

I also want to mention how proud I am of the Ballwin Police Department. Our Police Department recently received accreditation from the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies. That is a huge achievement for our City. Our citizens should be immensely proud to have a police department that has achieved this honor, called the "gold standard" in policing. You can find out more about the CALEA accreditation and how you can help shape the future of the Ballwin Police Department on page 10.

Lastly, I want to thank everyone for their response to the Parks & Recreation Citizen Advisory Committee search. We had a lot of people apply to be on the committee, and have chosen 8 wonderful people to serve our community. You can find out more about them by heading to www.ballwin.mo.us/Parks-and-Recreation-Citizen-Advisory-Committee/.

I hope everyone has a great fall and winter and a prosperous start to 2024!

The Ballwin Historical Commission tied music in with the standard “open house” tours of the Old Ballwin Schoolhouse and the Harrison-Schmidt-Dahlke log home from May-September.

Donner Rusk and Teresa Penrose led monthly jam sessions from May-September at the Old Ballwin Schoolhouse. They used the term “rootenanny” for those sessions to emphasize that the genre was mostly “roots” music. Due to heat advisories, some of the sessions were held inside.

Donner and Teresa were joined by their bandmate Matt Gaden on September 16th to do an outdoor concert at the Harrison-Schmidt-Dahlke log home while BHC steering committee members Gary Mertz and Gloria Russell conducted tours of the log home.

Nate Carroll, a U.S. Army combat veteran, who is enrolled in an accelerated Digital Cinematography program at Full Sail University with the goal of earning a Bachelor of Science degree, has been filming these activities. Nate will produce a small documentary of both the Old Ballwin Schoolhouse and the Harrison-Schmidt-Dahlke log home for the Ballwin Historical Commission to use as part of the commission’s goal to make our local history available to the community. The documentaries will be posted on the commission’s YouTube page near the end of this year.

Honoring a Hero

On July 23rd, Debra Belobraydich was taking her dog for a walk along Kehrs Mill Trail. It was something she typically did, but that day would not be an ordinary day.

A woman approached her and asked for her help. An eleven-year-old girl was on the bottom of a pool nearby, and no one nearby knew how to swim. Without hesitation, Debra jumped into the pool, grabbed the girl and brought her to the surface.

Debra told family members to call 911, and provided help to the girl until an ambulance was able to get there.

Debra is the reason that eleven year old is alive today.

At the August 14th Board of Aldermen meeting, Debra was honored for her heroic actions by the City of Ballwin, Ballwin Police Department and the Metro West Fire Protection District.

The City of Ballwin is incredibly honored to be home to a citizen like Debra, and we want to thank her for her heroism!

Curbside Leaf Collection

As leaf season begins again, we want to introduce you to one of the newest members of our leaf removal team: the leaf vac!

With this new vacuum, it will allow the Public Works Department to remove more leaves in a shorter amount of time, which speeds up leaf collection and helps them get to more houses and neighborhoods quicker!

The leaf vacuum also means instead of a four man crew going out to collect leaves, it's now a two man crew, allowing those other Public Works employees to focus on other street projects, like tree removal, sidewalk repair and other much needed areas.

The City of Ballwin is getting a second leaf vacuum to help out during leaf season, but it is not expected to be here in time for the 2023 leaf season due to supplier shortages.

Leaf Collection is expected to run through the first week of December (subject to change).

FALL LEAF REMOVAL

- This is a free service provided to most Ballwin residents who are customers of the City's contracted waste hauler (Republic Services).
- Please rake your leaves to the edge of your yard, not in the street or the gutter. Please do not park on top of or in front of leaf piles. Leaves that are not accessible cannot be collected until the next cycle.
- Each ward will have a designated crew. If you are not sure which ward you are in, please use our Online Ward and Street Look Up feature.
- We cannot guarantee what day your leaves will be collected, but leaves at every house will be picked up equally throughout the season.
- Crews will be collecting Monday - Friday during normal operating hours. There will be no pickup on City-observed holidays.
- This program may be delayed, halted, or ended due to weather conditions, manpower issues, heightened leaf volume, equipment down time, etc.

CALEA Accreditation for Ballwin Police

In a significant milestone, the Ballwin Police Department has achieved accreditation from the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies (CALEA). This remarkable achievement not only recognizes the Department’s commitment to excellence, but also underscores its dedication to upholding the highest standards in law enforcement practices.

CALEA, known as the “Gold Standard in Law Enforcement Accreditation”, focuses on establishing and maintaining rigorous standards that encompass various facets of policing, with an unwavering emphasis on life, health, and safety procedures. These standards are considered the bedrock upon which contemporary law enforcement agencies should build their operations.

For the Ballwin Police Department, achieving accreditation from CALEA represents more than just a plaque on the wall, it signifies a dedication to providing the best possible service to the community and ensuring that officers and dispatchers are prepared to tackle the myriad challenges of modern community policing.

Setting the Standard for Excellence

CALEA accreditation is a rigorous and comprehensive process that assesses law enforcement agencies against a set of internationally recognized standards. These standards cover a wide array of areas, including policy development, training, accountability, community engagement, and emergency response protocols.

Enhancing Public Safety

CALEA accreditation goes beyond just setting high standards; it provides a framework for addressing high-risk issues within the modern law enforcement environment. This framework ensures that your officers are not only well-equipped, but also well-prepared to serve your community effectively.

One of the key benefits of CALEA accreditation is the emphasis on life, health, and safety procedures. In an era where public trust in law enforcement is paramount, having these procedures in place not only protects officers but also fosters positive community relationships. This accreditation assures the community that their safety and well-being are top priorities for the Ballwin Police Department.

A Commitment to the Community

Achieving accreditation from CALEA is a testament to the Ballwin Police Department's unwavering commitment to serving its community with integrity, professionalism, and excellence. It signifies that the Department is not content with the status quo but is constantly striving to improve and adapt to the evolving landscape of law enforcement.

In addition to achieving accreditation, the Ballwin Police Department is actively seeking feedback and engagement from the community. There is a public access portal through CALEA where individuals can provide comments, commendations, or other information relevant to the accreditation process. This open channel ensures that the community's voice is heard and that the department continues to evolve in response to community needs. To access the Ballwin Police Department's Public Comment Portal, please visit the CALEA website using the QR code below.

In the world of law enforcement, earning accreditation from CALEA is a profound achievement, and for the Ballwin Police Department, it's a reflection of their commitment to ensuring a safer and more secure community for all.

Chief's Corner

In the August 2023 issue of Ballwin Life Magazine I wrote about hiring, its challenges and our process. But let me backup a step. Before the hiring process starts we have to get people interested in being a Ballwin Police Officer. And before that, we have to get people interested in being a Police Officer, in general.

Historically, law enforcement has not been very good at recruiting to the profession. We focused mainly on recruiting people to our individual departments. As discussed in the last article, two to three decades ago we were inundated with applicants. It seems that everyone wanted to be a police officer and departments never had a problem getting people in the door. In the last decade that has all changed.

The draw to our profession has cooled, which translates to fewer and fewer applicants. We now spend our time trying to make our departments look to be better employers than the next. Hoping that those few qualified individuals will want to work for our department, not the one down the street.

Policing agencies need to get better at recruiting people to the profession, not just the individual department. Look at the NFL as an example. Years ago they began a program called NFL Play Football. This program supports youth flag football and tackle football leagues across the country. That is a fantastic recruitment campaign to get people interested in that profession at a young age. In essence, they are recruiting players who will not start for 15 years.

There are a couple really good programs in law enforcement right now. The Boy Scouts have their Law Enforcement Explorers Program. Young people from Sixth grade through 20 years old can join a local police agency supported Explorer Program that exposes them to law enforcement. They get to do hands-on training and work with the local agencies during events. In Ballwin, we have partnered with the Manchester and Ellisville Police Departments and work with youths in our Route 66 Explorer Post.

Another program, through the Girl Scouts, is Camp Fury STL. This program, for girls ages 14-18, is a week-long camp that puts the girls through a mini police and fire academy. I really like this program because it exposes these young girls to professions they may not have otherwise considered. (Imagine your daughter learning how to handcuff the bad-guy or climbing that big, tall ladder on top of the fire truck...it's awesome.)

Yes, law enforcement agencies truly need to work together to recruit people to the profession first, then to our agencies second.

-Chief Doug Schaeffler

UPDATE

On “Running the Streets of Ballwin” from May 2023

We have an update on Brian Mitchell, who we first introduced you to in our May 2023 article. Brian was running all of the streets of Ballwin in 2023. We're happy to say on August 15th, Brian ran his last street!

Here are some statistics from his runs:

- It took 595 running miles to cover Ballwin's 150 street miles (all runs began and ended at his house)
- 91 separate outings
- 124 hours to complete
- Longest route: 10.5 miles

He says along the way, he picked up 37 pounds of nails, bolts, nuts and other metal debris from the streets. With that, he's made several sculptures.

He says he's still trying to figure out what his next goal is. Make sure to say “hi” if you see him around town!
